Dear

Dov

From as far away as England we applaud your newspaper ad campaign against Ehud Olmert. I saw it in the Jewish Press for which I am a regular essayist and op-ed contributor.

This inept and unelected opportunist Prime Minister represents a serious threat to the security of Israel and its people. What particularly struck a chord with me was your first tick-box: Arrogance.

The arrogance of clinging to office in total disrepute; strutting around on the world stage offering our land as if it were his to give away; belittling the sacrifices of soldiers who gave up their lives in the Lebanon war by talking about handing back their homes in Samaria even before their bodies were returned to their grieving families; belittling the victims of terror by offering to release their killers in exchange for 3 soldiers he didn't have the guts to take back by force.

Yes, we do support this campaign but are under no illusions it will make any difference. I respectfully suggest that your emphasis and drive should be directed against those who are propping-up Olmert's coalition. Here I speak primarily of Shas whom I expected to walk out on any number of issues, most recently the Gay Pride affair.

You are in a unique position to lobby Rav Ovadia Yosef on behalf of the good and faithful Jews of New York to do the right thing by ordering his protégés in Shas to walk out on this feckless and corrupt junta of self-hating Jews. If you were to send me a copy of such a letter, I will be sure to send my own in support and enlist my colleagues in France to do the same.

With warm regards and best wishes,

Zalmi
