Dear Mr Prime Minister,

Your speech yesterday at the UN fills us with pride.

It is a speech which, in many parts, is what the leader of the free world needs to be saying instead of bowing to sheikhs and constantly apologising for America.

The Jewish nation looks to you never to bow to our enemies, by sacrificing our vital national interests, nor to apologise for any means by which the government of Israel sees fit to defend its people from terrorism or existential threats

Eric Graus joins me in sending our warmest regards and best wishes for a successful year ahead and Chag Sameyach to you and the whole 'Likud family'.

Yours sincerely,

Zalmi Unsorfer
Chairman
